

"The streets of Toronto are my home. That's the only place that I know I'll be safe. I know where the shelters are. I know where to get some food. I know where to take a shower."